ABANDON HOPE OF FINDING BALLOONISTS ALIVE

AVIATORS UNIFORMS RECORDS AND CHARTS FOUND IN WRECKAGE

Men Evidently Had Been Overtaken by Terrific Winds and Electrical Storm—Tried Desperately to Rise Above the Gale—Basket Was Ripped from Buffeted Bag

(By The Associated Press)
CLEVELAND, O., July 7.—All hope that Lieutenant L. J. Roth and his aide, Lieutenant T. B. Null, pilots of the missing navy balloon A-6698 which left Indianapolis on July 4 in the national elimination air race, were living was abandoned here tonight.

The crews of the tug Frank H. Stanley found the ill-fated aviators' complete uniforms, leather coats, log records and charts entangled in the drifting half-inflated balloon about twenty-two miles southwest of Port Stanley, Ontario, about noon today. On all sides the crew of the tug found mute evidences of a heroic struggle in mid-air.

Evidently overtaken by terrific winds and an electrical storm, Roth and Null fought desperately to ship their ballast and rise above the gale. Somehow, the basket was ripped from the buffeted bag which was found seared and water-logged by the crew of the Stanley.

PRESIDENT WILL BE INVITED TO JOIN ANTI-CIGARET CLUB

Lucy Page Gaston is Promoting the Organization

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 7.—Organization of a "statesmen's club" to fight cigarette smoking which President Harding will be invited to head, and membership in which will be offered to all governors and members of congress will be the next effort of Lucy Page Gaston, anti-cigarette crusader, she announced today at a Methodist camp meeting at Des Plaines, near here.

"President Harding now is a total abstainer from cigarettes and liquor, and therefore I feel that he is qualified to head the new organization," said Miss Gaston. She added that it is her intention to invite William J. Bryan and "Uncle Joe" Cannon, famous stogie smoker, to take an active part in the club's program.

Miss Gaston advocated abolition of the cigarette by legislation and said that other forms of tobacco would be abolished eventually, tho it would be too much of a hardship to do away with all of them at once.

FEDERAL COURT OF SOUTHERN DISTRICT HAS BUSIEST YEAR

Strikes and Bootlegging Furnished Most of Business

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 7.—Strikes and bootleg liquor gave the federal court for the southern district of Illinois the busiest year in its history according to a report published today by United States District Attorney Thomas E. Williamson.

The railroad strike of last summer and numerous prohibitory violations throughout the year which ended June 30, enabled the court to collect a total of $73,304.13, the report disclosed.

There were 722 criminal and 167 civil cases disposed of in the year. The court accepted 155 pleas of guilty, held 48 jury trials and disposed of 478 additional criminal cases by having the indictments quashed or nolle prossed.

TWO ARRESTED IN CONNECTION WITH KAUFMAN MURDER

Penniless Tramp and Negro with Bloody Purse Held

(By The Associated Press)
SCARSDALE, N. Y., July 7.—Suspicion today fastened upon a ragged, penniless tramp and a negro with a bloody purse as authorities scoured the countryside for the murderer of Dorothy Kaufman, governess from the Mennonite Colony in Westover, Md., who was hacked to death in the Scarsdale Home of Magruder Craighead last Tuesday.

The tramp riding a bus between White Plains and Dobbs Ferry, boasted to the driver that he was a "slasher" and recently had cut up a state trooper in a knife battle. The driver told the police about it and to them the wayfarer, giving his name of Anthony ("Tony") Amundsen, admitted he was homeless, out of work and had slept under the stars within a mile of the Craighead home the night of the murder.

Led to the little room where the governess was slain, Amundsen coolly surveyed the place, handled the blood stained butcher knife and stoutly denied all knowledge of the crime. Later he broke down and wept but did not reveal anything. Detectives were not satisfied with the tramp's story, saying he contradicted himself several times. He was taken to jail for further investigation as a suspected person.

The negro was hired as a handy man by Howard F. R. Mulligan, a New York attorney who lives near the Craighead home. Wednesday morning Mr. Mulligan said the negro showed him a bloodstained purse, explaining it had belonged to a brother killed in the world war.

The negro was grilled for several hours at the Mulligan home but his questioners did not reveal what he had learned.

It was disclosed by an autopsy before the body was taken to the girl's former home for burial, that she had not been assaulted. Nor had she been robbed, for articles of value were scattered about her body undisturbed.

W. J. BRYAN IS TERMED DANGEROUS CHARACTER IN RELIGIOUS THOUGHT

Rev. Edmund Soper Makes This Statement Saturday

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 7.—William Jennings Bryan was termed "an exceedingly dangerous character in religious thought" by the Rev. Edmund D. Soper, professor of history of religion at Northwestern University in an address to night before a Methodist camp meeting at Des Plaines. Mr. Bryan, he said declares man must choose between the Bible and evolution.

"That," he declared, "is one of the deepest dyed lies going. Man must have come up either from monkeys or from dust. I can see no advantage of mud over monkeys."

Mr. Bryan, he added, feared three things if evolution is accepted:

"That the Bible will be made a lie, that God will be made unnecessary and that man will lose his dignity because of his descent thru the animal creation." The Bible, he said is not a book of science, but a book of religion and morality.

DUISBURG OUTRAGE DEPLORED BY HOLY SEE

Rome, July 7.—(By The Associated Press)—A semi-official communique was issued by the Vatican today as follows:

"The Holy See which has already deplored the Duisburg outrage, because such incidents render more difficult the work of pacification has instructed governments so that the rigorous measures proclaimed against the final purpose of obtaining an understanding between Germany, France and Belgium."

tudes, to lessen the closeness of the basket quarters by doffing the flying suits.

The envelope when lightened of the weight of the basket would have drifted many miles away. This fact leads officers at the station to the opinion the balloonists may have been picked up by some slower moving craft, or landed on some lonely strip off shore.

Sabotage In Ruhr Explained By Cuno

(By The Associated Press)
BERLIN, July 7.—Sabotage in the Ruhr can be explained as growing out of the excitement of a tortured people and as a questionable attempt at self-defense is the opinion which Chancellor Cuno is reported semi-officially to have made known to Monsignor Pacelli, the papal nuncio in their closing conference last night.

The words are contained in a semi-official communique which announces that the nuncio presented fully the pope's views with regard to sabotage in the captured areas of Germany. The communique adds that the federal government agrees with the holy see however in condemning every criminal use of force.

Monsignor Pacelli is reported to be preparing to return to his residence in Munich. The result of his intercessions with the German government it is said will be transmitted thru him to the pope in a formal declaration regarding sabotage. It is officially stated that nothing is known here of two notes which Paris reports say France and Belgium sent to Berlin demanding of the German government formal condemnation of certain action of sabotage in the Ruhr and threatening to withdraw their ambassadors at Berlin in case of non-compliance.

BOLD ROBBERY IS PERPETRATED IN ROME YESTERDAY

Robbers Overpower Prince and Princess in Palace

(By The Associated Press)
ROME, July 7.—A bold robbery with a prince and princess as the victims, was carried out here today. Taking advantage of their position in the palace household, a waiter and a chauffeur early this morning overpowered Prince Carlo Giustiniani Bandini and his wife, Princess Maria, dragged them and made away with the jewels and money valued at 2,000,000 lire.

After making sure that the others of the household were asleep, the two men covered their faces with masks, cut the telephone wires and entered the bedroom of the prince and princess, whom they attempted to drug with anesthetic masks. The sleepers awoke and tried to summon aid, whereupon they were beaten and drugged by force.

The thieves then took their keys, opened the safe and removed all the jewels, including a historic diadem which once belonged to Queen Hortense of Holland, and 20,000 lire kept there for current expenses. They made their escape after locking the bedroom.

THREE MILE LIQUOR REGULATIONS ARE TO BE ENFORCED—FESS

If it Takes Every Force at Our Command Senator Says

(By The Associated Press)
DES MOINES, Iowa, July 7.—The three mile liquor regulations are to be enforced by the federal government, "if it requires all the forces at our command," United States Senator Simon D. Fess of Ohio, declared in an address before the world's Christian Endeavor Society here tonight.

Senator Fess was regarded by convention delegates as the official spokesman of the administration government means business when it talks to foreign ship owners on the three mile one way received as the government's reply to resolutions previously adopted urging a strengthening of the prohibition enforcement agencies.

"The eighteenth amendment and the Volstead law," said Senator Fess, "have been upheld by the supreme court and the government has a right to insist that they shall be observed both by Americans and foreigners. They will be enforced if it takes the army and navy to do it."

Senator Fess also announced that he would seek to have the world court proposal of President Harding ratified by the next senate.

"The United States can benefit by adherence to the world court without joining the league of nations," he said.

"This country should support the tribunal not only from the rostrum but the treasury."

CHRISTIAN GOSPEL IS URGED AS BASIS FOR WORLD PEACE

Speakers Say it Offers Solution of Industrial Problems

(By The Associated Press)
WINONA LAKE, Ind., July 7.—A challenge to the church to urge the Christian Gospel as the only solution for social and industrial problems was made tonight before the international conference on Christian citizenship by Dr. Charles L. Stelzle, founder of New York Labor Temple and widely known authority on industrial relations. At the morning session of the conference Dr. Stelzle introduced a plea to the rulers of the world urging concerted action for world peace based upon Christian principles of morality.

"The time has come to try Christianity," the address said. It was sent to the sovereign heads of more than 50 governments having been approved by the 2,000 delegates attending the conference.

Speaking on the cause and cure of social unrest, Dr. Stelzle said, "social unrest is caused mainly by those institutions which teach the finest idealism the world has ever known."

"From the time of the early disciples," said Dr. Stelzle, "the church has been exhorting the masses to improve their economic as well as their moral condition. Without the social unrest created by these institutions there can be no real progress. And all the powers and resources of the opponents of social progress will not prevail against it. Because the church has been so largely responsible for this social unrest, it dare not desert its people in their present critical situation. The greatest question before the church today is whether it is ready to lead the people unselfishly on in their fight for democracy, finishing the task it so long ago began, or whether it will step to one side and permit the unscrupulous agitator to usurp the place which rightfully belongs to the church."

A fence post broken by the impact when the cars careened into the inner fence, drove thru Bartley's jaw, and he was rushed to a hospital for a operation in the hope of saving his life.

NAVAL LIMITATION TREATY IS RATIFIED BY FRENCH YESTERDAY

Considered the Most Encouraging Piece of News from Abroad for Many a Day—Senate Must Still Give its Approval—Government Confident This Will be Done Soon

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 7.—Word that the French chamber of deputies had ratified the naval limitation treaty was received here as one of the most encouraging pieces of news that has reached Washington from abroad for many a day.

For many reasons, not all of which have been apparent on the surface of events, favorable action by France had been awaited with unusual concern. Altho the French senate still must give its assent before the circle of ratifying powers is complete, there appears to be little apprehension among American officials of serious opposition or delay in the proceedings.

Foremost among the causes for gratification here is that French acceptance of the treaty will put the cap-sheaf on the most portentous diplomatic undertaking of the Harding administration by actually giving vitality to the Washington conference plan to end competitive building of first line ships of war.

All the other signatory countries, Great Britain, Japan, Italy and the United States already have ratified and are awaiting only the pledge of France to put the Washington program into effect.

Beyond this, there is a measurable degree of relief among practical navy men at the prospect that the uncertainty which has surrounded American naval policy for more than a year soon may be cleared away and the expense of keeping in a state of suspended navigation naval units destined to be scrapped may be erased from the balance sheet.

An element contributing to the favorable reaction aroused by the French element—and an element of which officials will say little—lies in the unusual state of world diplomacy. During the past few months it has been an open secret in diplomatic circles at least that the delay of France was looked upon as a possible factor in the general policy she has followed in her dealings with her allies.

Again and again French statesmen have denied that failure to ratify the treaty had any connection with the French effort to bring Great Britain to her way of thinking about the Ruhr, but the denials have not served to entirely set at rest speculation on the part of the diplomatic representatives of the other powers. There are some officials who are not entirely confident that the French senate will take the requisite action and who still are fearful of a hitch.

In most quarters however, the view here is one of confidence that the highest peak in the pathway of the treaty has been passed. On this assumption, officials foresee a possibility that the final ceremony putting the naval limitation program into effect may be held here before fall.

FORMER CONVICT WHIPPING BOSS IS GUILTY OF MURDER

Jury Returned Verdict Saturday; Given Twenty Years

(By The Associated Press)
LAKE CITY, Fla., July 7.—Thomas Walter Higginbotham, former convict whipping boss, found guilty late today of murder of Martin Tabert of North Dakota, in the second degree by a jury here and was sentenced to twenty years imprisonment. He was released on $10,000 bond pending hearing of appeal.

Higginbotham was accused of having caused the death of Tabert as the result of a beating administered while the North Dakotan was serving a term in the Putnam Lumber company convict leased camp.

The trial consumed thirteen days.

The death of Tabert resulted in an investigation of the whole convict leasing system and its abolishment by the Florida legislature. That body also prohibited corporal punishment. Before the Florida legislature convened, the senate of N. Dakota adopted a memorial asking the Florida lawmakers to investigate the death of Tabert.

DEFENSE RESTED IN NITTI MURDER CASE YESTERDAY

Two of the Defendants Took Stand in Their Own Behalf

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 7.—The defense rested its case today in the trial of Mrs. Sabella Nitti Crudele and Peter Crudele, her husband, accused of the murder of Frank Nitti, the woman's first husband while Crudele was a boarder at the Nitti home. Nitti's body was found several months after his disappearance in a catch basin.

Charles Nitti, son of Mrs. Crudele and a defendant in the case, was freed today when the state nolle pressed charges against him. His story of how his mother held his sleeping father's hands while Crudele struck and killed him with a hammer led to the indictment of the three.

The court room was thrown into an uproar today when Mrs. Crudele was asked to identify the hammer with which the state contends the killing was done. She pointed to Mrs. Anna Volpe, formerly a neighbor and a star witness for the state, and declared that the hammer belonged to the Volpe family. Mrs. Crudele and her husband were the last witnesses for the defense. Nitti denied any implication in Nitti's death.

Price fighting is no doubt a brutal game but most of us would be willing to stand a pretty heavy punishment for a reward of $300,000.

It is noticeable that while the U. S. has had its critics at home, that people from all parts of the world are mightily interested in becoming citizens of Uncle Sam.

It must be admitted that geography has something to do with morals in dress. Now a Turkish "new woman" has been roundly denounced for daring to wear skirts.

It now seems certain that there will not be sufficient fund from the soldiers' bonus bond issue to make payment to all Illinois ex-service men. So far as Morgan county veterans are concerned, because of the active interest of the Jacksonville post of the American Legion, there was no delay in filing claims and therefore most local ex-service men will receive their drafts from the funds resulting from the bonds already authorized.

The interest which is shown in the talk of Henry Ford as a candidate for the presidency at least indicates that there is not the opposition to a wealthy man for the highest office in the land that is supposed to prevail.

If you hunt around to buy a Jacksonville water bond you will find them quoted above par.
This condition goes to prove that Jacksonville has credit and that its citizens are certain of its ability to pay. The business like-method with which the water bonds were handled and the city's course in meeting its obligations suggest a similar plan to meet the additional needs of the water system. Perhaps another citizens' committee will be willing to co-operate with the council in this good project.

A STATE'S BEAUTY SITES.

Illinois expects soon to have its 100 outstanding beauty sites located and marked so that all who wish may find and enjoy them.

The Better Community Movement in that state is conducting a photographic contest. The 100 most attractive places in Illinois will be chosen from over 1,000 submitted pictures. They will then be pointed out by roadside markers and indicated on highway maps.

When that part of the work is done the photographs will be mounted and made a permanent exhibit at the state university, as a historical photographic record of the representative types of beauty of Illinois in 1922 and 1923. Picture subjects include trees, flowers, rocks, lakes, streams, hills and general landscapes.

Here is a fine contest for the citizens of any state to be engaged in. For many persons seeing America first might well begin with seeing their own state first.
Beauties near at hand are often undiscovered or ignored just because they are so close. Some states no doubt have greater beauties and grander scenes than others, but any patriotic American must believe that every state in the Union has some charms of its own well worth noting and marking for all to find and enjoy. Making them known and acceptable should be a pleasant task.

AN UNWRITTEN MOVIE.

Mr. Charles Spencer Chaplin, of early and lasting fame, gave the moving picture public a treat in his short picture, "The Pilgrim." He proved then that a comedy may be both amusing and artistic, that laughter and tears are close associates in such a piece of work.

Now this genius is at work on a longer production which may be destined to prove some more encouraging truths about moving picture possibilities. Charlie himself does not act in this picture; he is its author and director. And its first unique feature is the fact that he is producing it without the aid of script, scenario and continuity sheets. It is reported that certain necessary written memoranda did find a place on Chaplin's cuffs and on old scraps of paper. But the notes, instructions, details, plans and directions were chiefly in the producer's thoughts.

In this, as in some of his other work, Chaplin is pioneering. His picture may not be released until spring, but whenever it comes the public is going to be interested to see just what he has done and in just what way he has advanced the moving picture as an art rather than an industry.

Coal is cheaper now than it will be later in the season.
Our advice is to buy now for next winter's needs.

PASSED LAWS TO AID ILLINOIS CITIES

Legislature Granted Power to Levy Taxes for Special Purposes

In the last general assembly various efforts were made to curtail the taxing power of cities.
Thru the interest of the Illinois Municipal League and officials in various cities, the law was kept in effect which provides for a corporate tax rate of $1.33 1-3.
Had this bill been repealed the corporate tax would have been 80c, a reduction of more than one-third. Chicago and down-state cities have cooperated in the successful effort to maintain the $1.33 1-3 figure.

In addition to maintaining this measure upon the statute books the legislature enacted a number of new laws which give to cities the power to levy certain special taxes in excess of the tax levied for general corporate purposes.

Here are some of the purposes for which special taxes may be levied:

Acquisition, equipment, conduct and maintenance of public playgrounds.

For police pension fund.
A firemen's pension fund.

To purchase, construct or enlarge waterworks and to provide for their management.

To establish and maintain public and municipal coliseams.

For a public benefit fund.
For street and bridge purposes.

To erect memorials and monuments.

To establish and maintain public tuberculosis sanatoriums.

The laws making these special tax provisions were passed because the supreme court at the February term handed down an opinion in which it was set forth that in order to authorize cities and villages to levy taxes for specific purposes the language used in the act providing for its levy must make it clear that the tax was in excess of that for general corporate purposes. In view of this situation the Municipal League and others interested began a specific program to lay all the facts before the legislature and the results show that this was done in a convincing way.

The legislative committee for the league included the following members: Mayor E. E. Crabtree, Jacksonville, chairman; Commissioner Willis J. Spaulding, Springfield; Mayor H. P. Pear-sons, Evanston; Mayor Paul T.
Klenk, Blue Island; Mayor Frank
C. Krysher, Carbondale; Corp.
Counsel C. L. Fitzrock, Urbana;
John A. Fairlie, Urbana; Corp.
Counsel Leon Hornstein, Chicago;
Mayor B. F. McLean, Macomb;
City Attorney F. C. Van Selber, Paris; Mayor T. A. Brown, Sparta; Mayor Charles P. Skinner,

ENGLAND AND RUSSIA LINKED BY AIR SERVICE

Koenigsberg, Germany. (By A. P.)—Passengers may now fly from London to Moscow in 19½ hours of actual flying time. The air trip from London to Berlin takes eight hours. It requires four and one-half hours between Berlin and Koenigsberg, and the trip is made from here to Moscow in seven hours.

Passengers leave London, Wednesday morning, take a night train from Berlin to Koenigsberg, and connect with the airship leaving here every Thursday morning for Russia. The service is daily between London and Berlin, tri-weekly between Berlin and Koenigsberg and tri-weekly between Koenigsberg and Moscow.

Mexico City. (By A. P.)—Pacification of the republic will make it possible for the department of war to reduce its budget about 20,000,000 pesos for the coming fiscal year, according to advance statements from that department.

Except for the operations of a few hill bandits, the country is completely at peace, it is declared. Another war department project is to reduce to two years the term of enlistment for cavalry recruits.

NEW YORK WOMAN WAS FIRST TO CLIMB HAWAIIAN MOUNTAIN

HILO, Island of Hawaii. (By A. P.)—The lofty, snow-tipped summit of Mauna Kea, highest spot in the Hawaiian Islands, has been surmounted, for the first time in history, by party of women, which included Miss Katherine, daughter of New York, a noted hiker, mountain-climber and writer.

Mauna Kea, upon whose lower slopes is the ever-active volcano of Kilauea, rises to a height of 13,825 feet above sea-level. The country on the slopes is of the roughest nature and the ascent is made from the semi-tropical temperature of sea-level to the bitterly-cold arctic temperature of the peak. None of the party of eight suffered severe hardships, except sunburn, windburn and blisters, they said upon their return.

Four days were consumed in making the ascent over the lava and the summit was reached so late in the afternoon that it was necessary for the party to spend the night at the top, which was swept by heavy winds. Only two days were necessary to make the descent.

London. (By A. P.)—The complete skeleton of a crocodile, which is estimated to have lived more than two million years ago, has been unearthed from the Oxford clay of Peterborough brickyards by P. J. Phillips, a noted English geologist.

The skeleton is 16 feet long and is identical with the skeleton of the present day crocodile. The monster was, however, a sea-going creature belonging to the middle geological period.

In a spot where the stomach would be found a fossilized mass containing traces of organic marine matter, the remains of the reptile's last and evidently too hearty meal.

Warsaw. (By A. P.)—M. Grabowski, minister of finance, took occasion to speak upon the improved economic situation of Poland at the recent Newspaper Congress here.

The Polish trade budget, the minister said, had been balanced and the country was now exporting more than it imported. The introduction of the Polish mark in Upper Silesia had helped the government in stabilizing Polish currency, and the return from direct taxes was an important factor in the bettering of Polish finances. The number of unemployed had also been reduced.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Naylor of Mercedosa motored to Jacksonville yesterday on a business trip.

ROME. (By A. P.)—The American Indian canoe, which for centuries has piled only the streams and lakes of the North American continent, has at last found its way to the classic "yellow Tiber." Canoeing has become a favorite river sport of the Romans. On Sunday a dozen or more of the trail Indian craft can be seen in the yellow waters gliding along the shores in company with skiffs, shells, sculls and motorboats.

The graceful Indian water conveyance has become so popular that an Italian firm has commenced the manufacture of them. They took several American canoes as models and then began turning them out by the scores. A canoe club has also been organized, and many Americans have joined. Paddling to the per-his property. How he eludes his enemies with the able assistance of his equine pal—Tony—rescues the girl of his dreams and comes into his own providing six reels of absorbing action.

MENNONITES PLAN CONFERENCE

Freeman, S. D., (A P)—Preliminary arrangements have been perfected for the national meeting of the Mennonite General Conference to be held here next month. This little town of scarcely a thousand persons is preparing to entertain between four and five thousand visitors and will attend the conference. The meetings will last a week and will be held on the campus of Freeman college, a Mennonite school. Freeman was chosen as a meeting place because there is a Mennonite colony, Wolf Creek, near here. This is the third such meeting to be held in the United States, members of the sect declare.

BOY GUARD TO PROTECT FORESTS

Ottawa, Ont., (A P)—One hundred and forty thousand Canadian school boys have been handed into an army of guards to watch for and prevent forest fires in the Dominion this year, according to an announcement made by the Canadian Forestry Association.

The new organization, which is known as the Young Canadians Forest League, will, it is expected, save several million dollars worth of timber from fire ravages.

FAMOUS BIBLE GOES TO ITALY

London, (By A. P.)—The famous Bible of the Borso d'Este, valued at $250,000 and belonging at one time to the late Emperor Karl of Austria, has been purchased by a rich Milan manufacturer, who outbid an American banker for it.

The Bible is illuminated by artists of the 15th century and is regarded by antiquarians as the finest specimen of its kind in existence. During his stay in Switzerland Karl, being short of money, sold the rare book to a London antiquary, who in turn disposed of it to its present owner in Italy.

OLD TYPE OF FRENCH PEASANT PASSING

PARIS.—(By the A. P.)—Mov- es in farming centers to teach the French peasants new methods of cultivation have made the people of the cities realize with something of a shock that the peasant is changing his ways. The policy of keeping land holdings small has made the French a nation of proprietors, so far as such a condition can exist. The French inheritance laws tend toward the equal treatment of children in wills, so that in most cases the farm is actually divided into small tracts rather than sold and the proceeds distributed.

This love of the land, and the secretiveness born of living to himself is said by sociologists to be changing. The farmer of today looks upon his land as the instrument of fortune building. He will sell it at a profit for he can buy more.

Fifty years ago the French farmer kept a secret the re- turn from his crops and the kind and quantity of fertilizer he used. If he needed money he regarded borrowing with such dismay that he went to a money lender in another district, often at night, and and paid usurious interest to es- cape publicity. The modern farmer, although still perhaps in the minority, joins cooperative buying and selling organizations, discusses the best methods of cultivation with his neighbors, and is proud to tell what good bargains he has made. This, however, is the rose view of country progress. There still remains the old type of suspicious peasant, guarding jealously his bit of land and the secrets of his savings, hidden in the house or buried under the floor. This method of hoarding known as the "woolen sock," is believed by financiers to explain the rigid dis- appearance in France of gold and silver, and even of a great mass of banknotes. The French have learned to subscribe to bond is- sues, as a matter of patriotism, but the police records of his hauls by thieves in apparently poor homes show that many French- men still have no use for banks.

CANADIAN IMMIGRATION INCREASES

Ottawa, Ont.—(By the A. P.)—Immigration into Canada in- creased 31 per cent during the first four months of 1923 as com- pared with the same period a year ago, according to figures compiled by the Department of Immigration and Colonization. Up to May 1, the figures show 22,140 immigrants entered the Dominion to take up permanent homes.

ALUMINUM COINS SOON TO CIRCULATE IN BERLIN

Berlin, (AP)—It will not be long before the jingle of metal coins will again be freely heard in Berlin shops and banks. It is estimated that there will soon be 210,000,000 marks in alu- minum "small change" in cir- culation.

The enormous depreciation of the mark has made the pfennig pieces such insignificant bits that they have disappeared from virtually all cash tills. Before the war there were one and two-pfennig pieces in nickel, and 50-pfennig coins in silver, besides then ten and 20-mark gold pieces.

The practice of minting alu- minum coins originated during the war, when this material was used to replace the copper coinage in the smaller denomination. Later iron also was used, and the Sax- on town of Meissen, famous for its porcelain ware, even resorted to the use of porcelain for this pur- pose.

All of the new coins now being minted are made of aluminum. Only recently a large number of 200-mark pieces were put into circulation, and plans are nearly completed for issuing 500-mark coins as well. The former are about the size of an American quarter and the latter will measure something like a United States half-dollar. The mintage of 1,000-mark coins is being con- sidered.

present plans of the predatory animal bureau of the U. S. De- partment of Agriculture, assisted by the chemical warfare service of the Eighth Army Corps Area. Major George M. Halloran, chem- ical warfare officer of the corps, will begin experiments soon to determine which gas is the most effective in killing snakes.

Phosgene generally is consid- ered the most fatal to animals with respiratory systems and will be tried first. Other gases which may be used in the experiments are chlorine, which asphyxiates and mustard gas, which sears or burns. The preliminary tests will be conducted at Fort Sam Houston, under the plans.

"It is planned to ascertain thru the summer which gas is most deadly to the rattlesnake, and when cold weather comes and the reptiles have gone to dens and hibernating places, to experiment on them en masse," said an announcement.

DETERMINING CAB FARES A HAZARDOUS JOB

Berlin.—(By the A. P.)—Taxi- cab fares in Berlin are now seven thousand times the number of marks registered on the taximet- ers.

Taxicab drivers all carry print- ed tables showing the totals the multiple produces with various possible registrations on the in- dicator. Every time the multiple is changed there is endless con- fusion, and many disputes ensue which the police are often called upon to settle.

Clerks in shops are provided with similar tables. In every trade an agreement is arranged as to the multiple which will be used in computing the price of articles in depreciated paper marks, as against the gold-mark price.

SCORES FLUKE HOMER ON GROUND BALL

(By NEA Service) ST. LOUIS.—Ken Williams of the St. Louis Browns last season led the American League in home runs with 39. Williams at present is showing the way in the American League and hopes to re- peat as the leading slugger. If Dame Fortune continues to smile on him as she did in a recent game at Sportsman's Park against the Boston Red Sox, Williams is certain to top Babe Ruth.

It is questionable if there ever was a more unusual home run than that scored by Williams off Pitcher Bill Pierce. Williams, a left-handed batter, pulled a curve ball hat was inside, down along the foul line. The ball shot by first base on the ground about a foot fair. It continued to hug the foul line and looked to be good for a single, a double at the very best.

The ball was hit so hard that the Red Sox right fielder decided to play the ball on the rebound off the pavilion wall rather than to try to get in front of it and have the ball shoot by him. How- ever, the ball, instead of rebound- ing as would be the case 999 times out of 1,000, hit the wall, shot about 10 feet in the air, cleared the wire screen that is placed in front of the right field bleachers and dropped out of sight into a narrow space between pavilion and bleachers.

Since the ball passed out of playing territory it was ruled a home run. Its freaky feature,

JACQUES FOURNIER IS NOW LEADING BATTER IN NATIONAL LEAGUE

Ambition of Several Years is Realized by the Big Frenchman—Babe Ruth Now Tied with Eddie Collins for Third Place in American—Leaders in the Minor Circuits

CHICAGO, July 7.—(By The Associated Press.)—An ambition, cherished in the mind of Jacques Fournier, of Brooklyn for a number of years, has been realized. The big Frenchman who since he broke into the majors has led in the hopes of some day being at the head of the column is the new leader among the batters of the National League, according to averages released today and which include games of last Wednesday. By cracking out nineteen hits, the happy son of France boosted his mark from .342 to .384, which tops the players who have participated in 45 or more games. In his collection of hits, Fournier made five home runs during the week, in addition to collecting four doubles. Zack Wheat dropped ten points, and now is trailing Fournier, with an average of .382.

The wonderful spurt of Fournier has been one of the most sensational in some time. During his march Fournier made a record of six hits in six times at bat.

Jimmy Johnson also of Brooklyn has been keeping step with his teammate and had shot forward into fourth place, with Young of New York. They are tied with .366.

Ed Roush of Cincinnati is third with .374. George Grantham, of the Cubs has lost none of his cunning on the base lines. He is showing the way to the base stealers with twenty thefts and is leading the two base hitters with twenty-three.

"Cy" Williams of the Phillies has recovered sufficiently to take his regular position, and is back in his batting stride. In the past week "Cy" cracked out two home runs and now leads the major league players with twenty-two.

Other leading batters: Frisch, New York, .363; O'Farrell, Chicago, .360; Grimm, Pittsburgh, .357; Bottomley, St. Louis, .347; McKan, Philadelphia, .344; Southworth, Boston, .343; Traynor, Pittsburgh, .343; Hornsby, St. Louis, .343; Carey, Pittsburgh, .337; Bigbee, Pittsburgh, .330.

American League
Harry Heilmann, of Detroit, who stepped out in front shortly after the going sounded, has remained on the top of the hitters in the American League. During the last week his average dropped from .425 to .419. However, he continues to lead. His closest rival is Charles Jamieson of Cleveland, who is the runner-up with .375. Babe Ruth has batted himself into a tie for third place with Eddie Collins of the White Sox. Each has a mark of .363. Ruth bagged two more homers, and ran his string to 16. Collins is blazing the trail for the base stealers with 27 thefts. Ken Williams of the St. Louis Browns smashed out a brace of four baggers and is trailing Babe for the honors with total base record of 163 and has added a dozen runs to his scoring record, having tallied 68 times.

DETROIT MOVES UP IN LEAGUE STANDING
DETROIT, Mich., July 7.—Detroit moved up in the American League standing today by taking a double-header from Philadelphia, 9 to 6 in the first game and 5 to 3 in the second.

The Tigers won the first game by hard hitting and captured the second contest in the eighth inning when Hellmuth hit a home run scoring Manush ahead of him.

Miller, Philadelphia's left fielder, also scored a home run in the eighth inning of the first game. Manager Cobb and Third Baseman Riccarda, exchanged blows in the eighth inning of the second game after Riccarda had blocked the Tiger leader off third.

Ehmke is Pitching FINE BALL FOR CHANCE
Boston, June 39.—Does managerial handling often makes a difference in the results attained from players. The case of Howard Ehmke would make it seem so.

With the Detroit club last year Howard Ehmke, who has as much stuff as any pitcher in the game, was a very erratic performer. His failure to be a consistent winner caused his courage to be doubted.

Ehmke, a side arm pitcher all his life, was made over into practically an underhand pitcher last year to look for orders on almost every pitched ball. Little or nothing was left to his judgement as to the proper way to work on the batters who faced him.

Last fall Ehmke was traded to Boston. Manager Frank Chance of the Boston Red Sox, while a stern taskmaster has always been noted for his methods of permitting the pitcher to work out his own salvation. Only when Chance wants a player purposely passed does he butt in on the pitching situation.

"Go out there and pitch the ball game to the best of your ability" is the way Chance put it up to Ehmke.

"You have the stuff and ought to win a lot of ball games. Let me see you do it."

Evidently that was just the encouragement Ehmke needed as he has been Boston's most effective pitcher and with a tail-end club is going to hang up a mighty good record.

Cuyler of Nashville and Neun of Birmingham who are tied for first honors with twenty-six stolen bases apiece.

Other leading batters are: Taylor, Birmingham and Memphis, .336; Herman, Atlanta, .335; Bernsen, Nashville, .334; Cuyler, Nashville, .332; Foss, New Orleans, .331; J. Miller, Birmingham, .327; D. Williams, Mobile, .322; Cueto, Mobile, .320; Smith, Little Rock, .317.

Western League
Diamond of Denver, a week ago in tenth place in the Western League, has launched a drive and is within striking distance of Bauman of Tulsa, who is leading with .398. Horan of Des Moines is the runner-up with .384 and Diamond is next with .377.

Davis of Tulsa and McDowell of Wichita are tied with 18 circuit drives each.

CLEVELAND MAKES NEW MAJOR LEAGUE RECORD

Scored 27 Runs Against Boston Yesterday—Took Both Ends of Double-Header

CLEVELAND, O., July 7.—The largest score ever compiled by an American League club was registered by Cleveland this afternoon when it defeated Boston in the first half of the double-header, 27 to 3. The previous record was 24 to 2, set by Philadelphia against Detroit May 18, 1912. The Indians also tied the record by scoring in every inning and came within one run of tying the American League record by scoring 13 runs in the sixth inning. Cleveland also won the second game, 8 to 5. By winning both games, the Indians took undisputed possession of second place.

(NEA Service Writer)

CHICAGO—"One hand is better than two."

That means for baseball playing—not checkers.

And "Red" Feeny (he's Leo in the family Bible) ought to know. Although he uses only one hand his batting average is .417.

None of his teammates on the Resolute Nine can come up with him.

When "Red" was born 23 years ago, his left hand was missing. Was he downcast? None of his infant tears was ever shed over that. He simply set to work to make an asset out of a necessity.

"Using only one hand to bat with, I can place the hits more accurately," he explains. "The bat can swing more like a tennis racket. Of course, with a single arm I get a much longer swing. But the principal advantage is in accuracy of short hits, when they are needed.

"In the field I can get the ball away just as fast as any of the others. It is just second nature when I catch the ball to flick my glove under the other arm and have the ball free in my hand for the throw.

WILL SHOW VIEWS OF UNION PRINTERS' HOME

Local Branch of International Typographical Union Has Arranged for Showing—Is Largest Home Maintained by Union or Fraternal Organization

Members of Local No. 356, International Typographical Union have arranged for the showing of films and slides of the (Union Printers' Home at Colorado Springs at the Grand theater the coming week. The pictures will be shown on Monday and Tuesday nights.

Local residents not familiar with the history of this magnificent institution may be interested in some facts concerning it. The International Typographical union is the pioneer among union and fraternal organizations in this work. For many years the members had visions of such a place.

The proposition first came before the organization in 1857 at the meeting held in New Orleans, La., but did not meet with serious consideration. Again in 1860 and several times thereafter the proposition came up in conventions but it was not until 1882 that it began to assume tangible form. In that year a committee was appointed to devise ways and means to build and maintain a home for disabled printers.

Receive $10,000 Check
Nothing came of this action but in 1886 new impetus was given to the plan when a check for $10,000 was received from George W. Childs and A. J. Drexel of Philadelphia.

At the session of 1887 held in Buffalo, Austin, Texas, had a proffer of a site for the proposed home. A report suggesting that the fund be used to endow hospitals at Austin, Texas, Denver, Colo., and Los Angeles, Cal., was presented at the session held in Kansas City in 1888 but the matter went over until the session held at Denver in 1889.

At this convention several offers were made among them being one from Louis R. Erich of Colorado Springs of 80 acres of land one mile east of Colorado Springs, Colo., conditional on the International Typographical union commencing the erection of a home on the tract within two years to cost not less than $20,000.

This was the tangible beginning as the offer was accepted and in 1890 the board of trustees determined to erect a $60,000 building and the contract was awarded on March 17, 1891. The building was dedicated in May, 1892.

Many Additions Built
Since the initial building was completed a $40,000 annex has been built. Then followed a library addition, laundry, boiler plant, superintendent's cottage, greenhouses, barns and other improvements. The home is located on 247 acres of land that is valued at $1,000,000 by conservative real estate men. In the 29 years of its existence the union has spent in building and maintenance, more than $2,000,000.

The union printers' home is the largest maintained by any union or fraternal organization, and is as has been stated, the pioneer among such institutions. Aside from the $10,000 gift referred to above the money for building and maintenance has been contributed entirely by members of the International Typographical union. The organization now numbers more than 75,000 members.

While the pictures to be shown here will be of unusual interest to members of the local union they are well worth a trip to the theatre by all citizens as they show what can be accomplished by organization and co-operation.

GILBERT'S

RED CROSS IN MONTHLY SESSION

The board of directors of the Morgan County Red Cross met in the Red Cross room at the library recently.

H. J. Rodgers and J. J. Kelly reported on the state Red Cross convention held in Chicago recently. One of the principal lines of discussion at the convention was the relation of the branch societies to the county chapter. The majority of delegates felt that the branches should contribute more to the treasury of the county chapter, and that those branches not doing active Red Cross work should turn their monies over to the county society.

The secretary presented the following monthly report: 122 cases, 170 letters received, 90 letters written for clients, and 85 calls of clients to the office.

Mrs. Katherine Sullivan, the secretary, was granted a vacation for the latter part of July.

WILL ASK COUNCIL TO BANISH HOGS

Health Department Believes City Is Housing Too Many Porks These Hot Summer Days.

Recently the city health department completed a survey of the hog pens within the city limits of Jacksonville. The preliminary facts were presented in a report to the city council two weeks ago and at the same time a map was prepared showing the location of the pens. Since that time a check up has been made showing the number somewhat larger than at first indicated.

There are today in Jacksonville 112 hog pens providing space for 473 hogs. The pens and hogs divided as to wards as follows:

First ward—35 pens, 118 hogs.
Second ward—23 pens, 68 hogs.

Third ward—30 pens, 135 hogs.
Fourth ward—23 pens, 152 hogs.

The whole subject will be presented to the city council tomorrow night by Dr. R. V. Brokaw, city health officer, and it will do doubt be his recommendation that an ordinance be passed prohibiting the keeping of hogs within the city limits.

The records show that an average of 50 to 60 complaints are filed with the health department weekly because of the offensive odors that come from these hog pens. The pens cannot be kept perfectly clean and without doubt constitute a menace to public health.

It is said that practically all other Illinois cities of this size have already made it illegal to keep hogs within the city limits. If the council takes the action recommended by the health department it will no doubt be the plan to allow a fair period of time for the sale of the hogs before the law goes into effect.

LOCAL MEN ARE RECEIVING BONUS

When the state bonus was first granted the local post of the American Legion immediately got busy assisting the veterans in making out their papers and as a result those who got their papers in early are now receiving their money, some having received it as early as last Tuesday. The size of the checks range all the way from $30 to $300.

Although some few of the veterans may squander part or all of the allowance, it will be found that by far the greater majority will use their money to the very best advantage.

DERAILMENT IN WABASH YARDS

Four cars of coal were derailed yesterday morning in the local yards of the Wabash, the rails being too tight to carry the load. The west bound local stayed in Jacksonville yesterday afternoon to get them back on the track. No damage was done to the cars or contents.

WILL ENJOY TOUR

Mrs. Joseph Rodems and daughters, Miss Edith and Miss Esther, will leave tomorrow morning for Springfield where they will meet a number of relatives. The two daughters are now enjoying their annual vacations from their places of employment.

CLOVERLEAF OFFICES READY IN FEW WEEKS

Work on Handsome New Office Building is Progressing Rapidly—Company and Store Tenants to Occupy It About September 1st.

Work has moved along so satisfactorily on the new office building of the Cloverleaf Life & Casualty Co., that it will be ready for occupancy by September 1, according to the contractor S. G. Chumley. The outside work on the building has been practically completed and a good start on the interior has already been made. Mr. Chumley has pushed the work from the beginning and the results have been very satisfactory to the company.

The office building, massive in its outlines, is finished in Bedford stone and will certainly constitute a great improvement for East State street and the whole city. The first floor room on the corner is 30x60 feet in general dimensions. The next room to the east is 10x60 and the third is 20x60. The display windows for these rooms will be of modern type and this will also be true of the fourth display room which faces East street.

As previous notices have indicated the entrance to the building is on the west side, a spacious stairway leading to the offices on the second floor. There are seven or eight rooms about 20x20 in dimension and the remaining space is thrown into one large counting and recording room. Lighting was given special attention in the plans. The small street windows have large windows drawing light from the side of the building and two great sky lights with prism glass furnish the lighting for the large room.

It is the intention of the Cloverleaf as soon as this building is ready for occupancy to move the offices now on the second floor of the East State street building to the new quarters, while the remodeling program is carried on in the present building. When this work is finished the entire East State street frontage of 100 feet will be finished uniformly in Bedford stone. There will then be two additional ground floors for rental purposes.

As already stated, the foundation of the new building are solid and sufficient steel and concrete were used in the construction to make it possible to add a third story at a later time if desired.

PAMPHLETS ARE ADVERTISING CITY

The pamphlets recently issued boosting Jacksonville are bringing forth favorable comment and doing much to advertise this city, according to a letter recently received by T. M. Tomlinson from H. D. Judson of St. Joseph, Missouri, who is the general manager of the Pike's Peak-Ocean-to-Ocean Highway Association.

In his letter to Mr. Tomlinson reads as follows:

Dear Mr. Tomlinson:
I am in receipt of your letter of June 30, which also contained one of the fine pamphlets which Jacksonville is now issuing to the traveller and stranger within her gates. Please accept my compliments on this as one of the best of its kind I have ever seen issued by a city the size of Jacksonville. Through the tourists and from other sources we hear a great deal about Jacksonville, and we are sure that this is particularly due to the untiring efforts of the good boosters in your community. I wish we had a hundred places on the Pike's Peak Ocean-to-Ocean-Highway with as many good boosters as your city.

Cain were chosen as a committee in charge of the picnic plans. The date will probably be sometime between September 10 and 20th.

A committee composed of Charles S. Black, C. A. Rowe and J. W. Arnold was also appointed to confer with the county treasurer relative to the lowering of the assessed valuation of land in this county.

It was also decided to call a meeting soon of the veterinarians looking toward a standard charge for the vaccination of hogs. They also went on record as favoring a county wide fight against tuberculosis in cattle, and that they would ask aid of both the state and the federal government in the fight.

FRANK HOUSTON DIES FROM PISTOL WOUND

Was Shot by William Stall Thursday Night—Post Mortem Was Held by Dr. H. C. Woltman and Dr. T. O. Hardesty.

Frank Hurston, colored, who was shot by William Stall Thursday night, died at Our Saviour's hospital Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock as the result of the wound.

A post mortem examination was made Saturday evening at the Gillham funeral home, where the body was taken. The physician who made the examination were Dr. H. C. Woltman and Dr. T. O. Hardesty.

It was found that the bullet had pierced the bowel and buried itself in the left hip joint, from where it was extracted by the doctors. A coroner's inquest will be held some time Monday, probably in the morning.

The funeral will be held from the Gillham Funeral home Monday afternoon at 2:30 with burial in Jacksonville cemetery.

Yesterday morning hope of keeping life in Hurston's body was despaired of and State's Attorney Carl E. Robinson went to the man's bedside and got a statement from him. William Stall the man who did the shooting, is being held pending the result of the Coroner's inquest.

Deceased was born March 15, 1890, in Columbia, Mo., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hurston. On May 7, 1923, he was married to Miss Helen Casey. He had been making his home at 332 North West street. YOUNG BOYS TO BE GUIDED OVER MANY PITFALLS

Boys of Sixteen are Being Enlisted in an Assembly of American Sentinels—Plan is to Protect Him Against Pernicious Associations—Prominent Men Head Movement

CHICAGO, July 7.—Boys of sixteen are being enlisted into an assembly of American Sentinels, an organization which plans to take the boy at this age, build him in mind and body, protect him against pernicious associations and direct his development until the day when he shall be inducted into citizenship. His protectors are numbered among the most prominent men of the country, with President Harding as honorary head.

"Young fellows in this transition period are neither boys nor men, and need guidance so that they will not become misfits in the world of action because they lacked vocational training," said Rear Admiral William A. Moffett, former commandant at Great Lakes Naval station, and honorary director of activity.

"Much of the social industrial thousands of them become re-united against society because they feel they did not have a fair chance."

Seeking to correct this all-around condition the American Sentinels was launched with a program of six aims, which are:

Teaching the enjoyment of living and developing a sense of true sportsmanship; finding the proper vocational place for each young man and training him to fill that place; reviving the Old Spartan endurance, fearlessness and steadfastness in all things; cultivating a spirit of honor, tolerance for his fellow man, and understanding an appreciation of American liberty and institutions; developing a body of athletic, intelligent, clean-cut and virile young Americans; formally inducting each young man into citizenship.

The organization is based upon the Roman army system, there being two main divisions—legionaries and auxiliaries. The workers and sponsors are auxiliaries. Legionaries are divided into groups, 32 forming a guard. Each guard is divided into four squads. The guard is governed by a prefect and two assistants. Eight guards constitute a manipulus, governed by a centurion. Twenty manipuli make a cohort, ten cohorts a legion. All legions are under the direction of a director general.

There is no distinction as to race, faith, party, class or sect.

RAILROADS SHOULD BE GOOD CUSTOMERS

Wellesley Hills, Mass., July 6, 1923. Roger W. Babson is optimistic over the condition of the railroads, even though he is not bullish on railroad stocks. He insists that the railroads are making more money than they have made for years and the business should get the benefit of this money before long. Mr. Babson's authorized statement is as follows:

"Whatever may happen to the stock market, the fact, nevertheless, remains that the railroads are making money, in fact, more money than they have made for years. The two hundred leading roads should report for that last month, for which we have available figures, about $550,000,000 gross compared with about $450,000,000 for the corresponding month of last year, thus showing an increase of over a hundred million. Two thirds of this has been eaten up by operating expenses, but about forty million is left as an increase of net. During 1922 freight cars were loaded 4,873,427 freight cars were loaded compared with 3,841,683 freight cars during May, 1922. The loading figures for June show a greater increase. Truly this is remarkable and a similar situation has seldom happened before in the railroad world. This means that over a million freight cars are being loaded a week. It therefore shows that when the present area of business readjustment is completed and we are ready to enter a period of real prosperity, the railroads are liable to break down as they will be unable to care for the country's business. One wonders if the interstate Commerce Commission or the politicians of the country realize this serious condition. The number of freight cars should be increased as the normal line of the Babsonchart runs upward. The car loadings naturally fluctuate with the hills and valleys of the earth, but the number of freight cars in existence should increase as the normal line of the chart increases."

"This improvement in the railroad situation has developed with out any special reasons. The country has been enjoying, for the past few months, a small intermediate area of prosperity. As this was not a real area of prosperity, one can readily imagine what will happen when the real area of prosperity comes. Furthermore, these earnings have come about during a period of very bad weather conditions. Railroad men tell me that this is the worst spring, from a railroad point of view, that the railroads have ever experienced. Even during April, the northern part of the country had severe snowstorms, while the southern part suffered continually from floods. The cold weather over the entire country, during April and May, greatly retarded buying. Of course the railroads had an increase in rates, but this increase took place more than a year ago. There has been a decrease in rates and an increase in wages since the blanket increase two years ago. On July first, last year, the interstate Commerce Commission put into effect a cut of 10 percent on most commodities except grain, which was cut 16 percent January 1, 1922. In addition to this, there have been many other reductions of rates. When comparing the net earnings of the railroads with four years ago, we must allow for the increase of rates; but the forty million dollars a month increase in net earnings, which the railroads are now making, compared with a year ago has developed with a decrease in rates."

"Railroad stocks usually go with the market irrespective of the earnings when we are in a bull market, all stocks go up; but, all stocks go down, irrespective of earnings, when the market is down. Therefore, I do not wish to say anything relative to the future action of railroad securities in the stock exchange. I do, however, wish to emphasize that the railroads are having about forty million dollars a month more to spend for labor, equipment, and supplies than they had at this time last year. When one takes into consideration the increased maintenance charges, this means that the railroads should have this year five hundred million dollars more to spend than they had last year. Seven eighths of this should go into general business. I cannot make the public see this. They point only to politicians and talk constantly that an attempt will be made to have Congress persecute the railroads next year. Probably such an attempt will be made, but this is no reason why our Congressmen and Legislators will be so short-sighted as to pass any detrimental legislation."

"The railroads are not perfect. In the past they made a great many mistakes which were unexcusable. Their attitude toward the public was medieval and wrong. These conditions are now greatly changed. All the roads are not yet perfect, it must be admitted that they are now trying to do what is right. If the interstate Commerce Commission and Congress would only help them in this endeavor, it would greatly help in bringing back a real period of prosperity. What will happen, I do not know; but I do know that things are going nicely with the railroads at present and all live business men who are selling the railroads should profit from these improved conditions."

The Babsonchart stands today at 1 percent above normal, the same as last week."

ENGLAND APPROVES ESTABLISHMENT OF EMPIRE AIR ROUTES

London.—The latest plan for commercial aviation in England is the establishment of a British Imperial Airship service which will connect England with all the British possessions by regular air routes. The first part of the scheme, which was originated by Commander C. D. Burney, R. A. F., provides for the establishment of a service of super-Zeppelins to Australia. This has been placed before the Air Ministry, and there is every prospect of its adoption. The Burney scheme would immediately make England the foremost country in commercial aviation, and add considerably to the strength of the air forces.

The fact that England has not already a gigantic fleet of commercial planes is not due to lack of enthusiasm on the part of the commercial aviation companies. The English companies now operating air lines to Paris and Holland, with the aid of subsidies from the government, are making a success of their projects.

The government has previously been reticent in accepting these plans because of the huge sums involved and the small chance of such lines ever paying, but it is now expected that the Air Ministry will push the establishment of new air routes.

Briefly the scheme provides for the establishment of a super-Zeppelin service between London, India and Australia. The Zeppelins will carry 200 passengers, goods and mail, and make the trip to India in three and a half days and to Australia in a week. Such ships will have a speed of 80 miles an hour and will be capable of a non-stop flight of 12,000 miles, about half way around the earth. This would cut the traveling time between these places to less than one-fourth the present time.

If the scheme is approved the service will start in about eleven months with bi-weekly service of passenger ships from London to Bombay and a little time later, to Perth, Australia. The ships will not use gasoline as fuel. They will be the first to use a non-inflammable mixture of kerosene and hydrogen, which has just been perfected by experimenters under the direction of the Air Ministry.

FAMOUS NAVAJO PAINTINGS SAFE FOR POSTERITY

Old Prophecy That When All the Sand Paintings are Forgotten and all Religious Chants Die Out the World Will Come to An End Can be Laid Aside for the Present

GALLUP, N. M., July 7.—The famous sand paintings of the Navajos have been preserved for posterity, and the old Indian prophecy of "The Holy Ones," that when all the sand paintings are forgotten and all religious chants die out, the end of the world will come, can be laid aside in the minds of those who believe in it, for the time being, at least.

For the sand paintings have been transferred by artists to the walls of the Hotel El Navajo, recently dedicated here. In placing the paintings on the walls the artists were particular not to depart in the slightest degree from the original paintings made by "White Singer" and other eminent chiefs.

In the art of the Navajos, They were therefore made in painting, music, the dance poetry colored sand and destroyed the same day they were made. Thus both paintings and chants passed on from generation to generation, changing gradually and mean drama. He depends upon his memory for every detail and teaches the cult in turn to his followers. The legend reads that when "The Holy Ones" gave the ceremonies to man, the priests were enjoined to memorize them and destroy the originals. This was done, not only to avoid their falling into sacrilegious hands, but principally to write them on the hearts of living men.

Thus many Indian medicine men were called upon to assist in furnishing the true paintings that remained in their memories and these were encephalograms of the originals. This was done, not only to avoid their falling into sacrilegious hands, but principally to write them on the hearts of living men.

the work, so that no detail was overlooked. These paintings, all of the Sacred Rituals of the Navajo, are not intended to be pictorial, but every figure, every line and every dot is a symbol. By the use of symbols only, their painter priests appealed to the imagination and the heart.

One of Most Prized Paintings

One of the most prized paintings adorning the walls of El Navajo is that of "Nayenesani" The Man who killed Fear. It is a sand painting of peculiar sacredness to the Navajo and has been made but rarely. Second in religious importance is the picture of the "Ascension of Dina-e-di-gini" or "Young Holy One."

Among the other sand pictures, now painted on the walls of the hotel are those symbolizing "The Clouds," "The Arrow Ceremony," "The Earth Mother," "The Bear," "The Pollen Boy" and "The Harvest Beetle."

When the Navajo tribe heard that the sand pictures were to be transferred and perpetuated they insisted on dedicating the hotel with the ritual of their race and performed the ritual of "The Blessing of the House."

In a previous ceremony, the evil spirits had been thrown out and the ritual contained no words of any evil or unlucky thing or spirit. Instead all that is good and beautiful was invited to take possession of the dwelling and its occupants and leave no room for evil spirits to return. The initial chant, sung during the procession of the Medicine Men, was an invocation to the "Unnamed God." He was petitioned to bless not only the house, but all its occupants and all that pertained to it as far as the mountains on the four sides of it.

The paintings were blessed with a special ceremony, the procession going from picture to picture, stopping for the leaders to sprinkle each picture with the sacred corn pollen.

After these particular blessings were invoked, a number of other chants were sung and the medicine men sprinkled the meal from the sand pictures over the building and the spectators and to "the four corners of the Earth." The remainder of the

THE reorganization of Armour and Company as a nationally owned institution, in which the farmers who are materially effected by the prosperity of the packing industry now are represented, has brought some of the country's most representative farmers and business men into the board of directors.

Securities totaling $110,000,000 were distributed to the public and then a new board of directors including agriculturists and business men never before identified with the packing industry and representing a wide field of successful enterprise.

Prominent among the new members is C. F. Curtiss, of Ames, Iowa, farming economist, dean of agriculture of the Iowa Agricultural College, director of the Iowa Experimental Station and President of the International Live Stock Exposition Association. AUSTRIANS DRINKING LESS WINE Vienna. (By A. P.)—Wine growers and wine sellers in Austria are alarmed at a recent notable reduction in the consumption of their wares. They are loud in their complaints, and are loudly lamenting with reason.

The principal causes of the falling off in the consumption of wine would seem to be, first, the exorbitant prices asked by both producer and inn-keeper, and second, the conditions of unemployment and half-time employment still reigning in the country. These have converted the wine lover perforce into a water drinker.

LADIES TO MEET

The Centenary Ladies Aid Society will meet with Mrs. T. H. Buckthorpe 921 Grove street Thursday afternoon at 2:30.

Illinois College Notes

Mrs. Nettie Fowler McCormick, widow of the late Cyrus H. McCormick, who died at her home in Lake Forest recently, was noted for her many and generous benefactions in the cause of education and religion. She was one of the generous donors to the Illinois College Endowment Fund recently raised. She had also given in previous campaigns.

The list of prospective students accepted for membership in the freshman class of Illinois College next year is growing steadily and it seems probable that late applicants will not be admitted no matter how fine their high school records. In spite of the stricter requirements for admission there are now more enrollments than ever before at this time of the year. Thirty-one members of the class of '23 of the Jacksonville High School have made their reservation deposits and others will do so very soon. These already on the list are George Adams, Kent Bracewell, Walter Bradshaw, Alfred Capps, Alfred Cranvill, Russell Deatherage, Edward Dunsen, Lelia Edelbrock, Martin Grass, John Hackett, Maude Eva Hackett, Earl Hackett, Henry Irving, Gail Jackson, Wilbur Jewsbury, Fred Jones, Allen Kelly, Margaret Marshall, Louise Middleton, George Oberst, Marion Parker, John Putnam, Russell Rawlings, Lavinia Scott, Irene Smith, Jane Smith, Allen Smith, Helen Walter, Cleo Wilkinson, Albyn Wolfe, and Edward Young.

The rooms at Academy Hall have all been reserved and the trustees are now endeavoring to make arrangements for the accommodation of some extra girls in an outside home.

Among other students who have sent their reservation deposits is Miss Helen Margaret Tisdale of Mobile, Alabama, a great granddaughter of President Julian M. Sturtevant. Among the students who were formerly in Illinois College who are expecting to return next fall are Chester Colton of Woodson, and Arthur C. Cox of Mt. Pulaski. Both of these men served in the late war and will hold LaVerne Noyes scholarships in Illinois College.

Beulah Ennis '16 was recently awarded a fellowship in Biology at Yale University for the academic year 1923-24. Miss Ennis has been teaching for the past two years in the high school at New Haven, Connecticut. She will spend the summer in graduate work in Biology at Columbia University, New York. Her sister, Elzoria of the class of 1918, who has been teaching in the Pekin High School, will also spend the summer in study at Columbia University.

Dorothy Foster '18 received the degree of Master of Science, from George Washington University, at the commencement exercises in June. For several years Miss Foster has been quite successful in her work in the U. S. Department of Chemistry at Washington, D. C.

William S. Sanford, who has been visiting in Jacksonville recently, was a graduate of the class of '01. Mr. Sanford's home is in Great Falls, Montana.

TEN MILLION BAPTISTS TO BE REPRESENTED AT MEET London. (By A. P.)—Britain's delegates to the forthcoming Baptist World Congress at Stockholm will number 583. They will sail the latter part of July on the liner Marloch, which will be their home or hotel during the conference.

"A large number of delegates have been appointed for Russia," Rev. J. H. Shakespear, secretary of the Baptist Alliance, said recently, "but we don't know if the Soviet government will allow them to attend the congress. Altogether we have registered 2,500 delegates from all countries, excluding Russia, and the congress will be the largest ever held. The delegates will represent ten millions of Baptists."

GERMAN TOBACCO MAY SPOIL JAPAN'S MONOPOLY

Tokio. (By A. P.)—Although protected by a customs duty of 355 per cent ad valorem, the Japanese tobacco monopoly held by the government had a scare thrown into it last month when the returns of imports showed that German cigarettes were being dumped here and being sold at a price below that charged by the monopoly.

A cry immediately arose for a further increase in the import duty or, alternately that the government should purchase the German cigarettes or tobacco and retail them thru the usual sources. Imported cigars and cigarettes are sold in Japan at almost prohibitive prices.

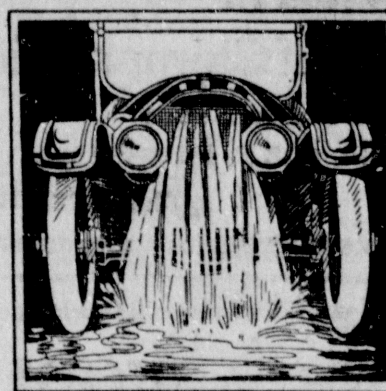

NEED NEW BUILDING FOR PHARAOH'S TREASURES

Cairo. (By A. P.)—The Egyptian Ministry of Finance has been asked for a special credit amounting to about $175,000 for the purpose of erecting an annex to the Cairo Museum, the building of which has been rendered necessary by the discovery of King Tutankhamun's tomb.

The work is expected to be commenced without delay, though the exhibition of the objects discovered will not be possible for some time after the completion of the annex owing to the careful and expert treatment they will require.

Friends of R. P. Joy will be pleased to learn that he is steadily improving in health. Friday he was able to enjoy a visit with friends in Joy Prairie.

Diamond Grove Memorial Mausoleum

It is to the State of Kansas to whom we are indebted for a campaign of research, national in its scope, in an effort to determine the type of construction and the materials from which to build and to choose the most perfect method of sanitation for burial vaults. After a careful study of their findings, it is evident that the community mausoleum is best designed to suit the needs of a community for the reason that it gives the utmost of security at far less cost, due to the fact that, along with the most modern engineering practice, which is carefully put into its construction, it carries a fund of sufficient amount, the income from which forever maintains the physical structure of the building, thus guaranteeing to owners of space indefinite perpetuity of their Memorial.

It should please the people of Jacksonville to know that in drafting the laws for the State of Kansas governing construction of mausoleums of all types, Mr. Sidney Lovell was called to assist in that connection, which is further evidence of his being recognized nationally as authority in mausoleum construction.

To subscribers in Diamond Grove Memorial, we again say that the first cost is the last cost and that they are forever relieved of further obligation in connection with the maintenance of this beautiful Memorial.

Telephone Talk No. 25

In a face to face conversation, facial expression, a kindly manner, a merry eye, often take away the effect caused by a strident or unpleasant tone of voice. In the telephone talk, these characteristics are not brought into play upon the listener's mind. A quiet, pleasant tone over the telephone helps to bring about mutual understanding and goodwill and increases the efficiency of telephone service.

THE MYSTERY

Here in the dark as we pass,
 Charged with an eerie glow,
 Low at the root of the grass,
 Parting the soil from below,
 The tip of a burnished spear
 Emerging from ancient mould—
 Or it may be a golden tear
 From a buttercup that rolled.

But wait! And beware the fell Weird glimmer at elfin portals
 That casts a subtle spell
 On rash and doubting mortals—
 The light that sheds a charm
 On thought and time and space,
 And lures the soul to harm,
 Or adulterates its grace,
 In fairy grottos under
 The basement of the sea,
 Beneath the vaults of thunder
 And forbidden mystery.

What is it? A harmless creature,
 Worthy of no concern,
 Save for the single feature,
 That it can live and burn;
 Burn with a steadfast flow
 Of cool and curious flame,
 That never a wizard tho
 Can reproduce nor name.

Perhaps you, too, have pondered
 With baffled sense of pride,
 How on a worm was squandered
 A glory to man denied;
 But well if the glory remain
 Eclipsed to vanity's eye;
 And from lust of barter and gain
 Forever, oh, let it lie Buried in caverns under
 The basement of the sea,
 Beneath the realms of thunder,
 An eternal mystery.

—JOHN KEARNS.

Of these awards 8788 were made to Americans and 980 to foreigners, including Medals of Honor to the Unknown Soldiers of Great Britain, France, Belgium and Italy.

France spent a total of 140,000,000,000 francs for equipment in the World War, of which 25,000,000,000 went for munitions, 17,000,000,000 for engineering and aviation material, 2,000,000,000 for artillery, 4,000,000,000 for rifles, 12,000,000,000 for transportation, 50,000,000,000 for the upkeep of the armies and 30,000,000,000 for the incidental civil expenses due to army operations.

Up to the close of the World War 40 American divisions had reached France. Seven were regular army, 17 National guard, and 16 National Army. On Armistice day the American troops represented 31 per cent of the ration strength of the allied forces in France, and held 22 per cent of the length of the western front. Of the 40 divisions the infantry personnel of 12 divisions were used as replacements.

A Battle Monuments Commission is now being selected to sit in Washington and approve of memorials to be erected in honor of soldiers, sailors and marines of the World War. The Commission will consist of a representative each from the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, and Disabled American Veterans of the World War, the Gold-Star Mothers, the United States Army and the United States Navy.

Engineers of the United States army have successfully developed a new powder. It is flashless, smokeless and non-hygroscopic. It is claimed that the new explosive may be exposed indefinitely to any atmosphere saturated with moisture without effect on its properties. The new powder was developed for use in 75 metre guns, but has been modified to include charges for heavier artillery. It will also be adapted to the rifle and machine gun, and will eventually replace entirely the powder now used for all arms.

RAILROADS TO OPEN TWO MILLION ACRES OF FARMING LAND

MEXICALI, Lower California. Bids for the construction of 150 miles of railroad thru Lower California by the National Railways of Mexico will be opened July 1, according to an announcement of Jose I. Lugo, military governor of the northern district of Lower California.

The construction of this railroad, government officials state, will make available more than 2,000,000 acres of farming lands, particularly adapted to cotton, for which water can be obtained from the abundant flow of the Colorado River. A total of $2,000,000 has been made available for the work, and an additional $2,000,000 has been set aside in the treasury of the northern district of Lower California for future work.

This pioneering railroad construction, according to Mexican officials, is the biggest piece of constructive work since the United States built its Alaskan railroad. The conditions contended with are equal in hardships and opposition from nature, but at extremes in their variety. Cold, snow, and the conquering of mountain fastnesses prevailed in the north. This southern operation involves combat with terrific heat in the summer season, death dealing sand storms, miserable chill in other portions of the year, and at all times absence of water or living thing upon which to subsist, except at the shores of the gulf, where water fowl, fish, and shell fish abound.

In addition to opening up farming lands, government officials state, the construction of this railroad will make possible the development of a wonderful area of mineral lands, rich in surface showing of gold and silver, heretofore too isolated to permit of profitable operation. It will also bring within the reach of rail transportation several million acres which have been passed upon by the geologists of the Mexican government as potential oil bearing lands, carrying live oil seepage, structure, and oil sands yielding petroleum at surface tests.

The control of all potential and unoccupied oil lands in Mexico has been vested in the National Railways of Mexico by the Mexican government, on the grounds, according to an official published notice, of affording adequate fuel supplies for all of the needs of the railroad lines in Mexico.

The terminus of the new railroad will be at Port Gonzales, 150 miles south of Mexicali. This port has 18 feet of water at the shore line, and ships of large tonnage are expected to carry from this port the products from the Imperial Valley.

The railroad enterprise is the first step in a program of colonization and development worked out by Governor Lugo, with the approval of President Obregon. The details of the plans being carried out include the establishment of gins and compress at Gonzales for the handling of the cotton grown on the new lands.

PHILIPPINE SUGAR CROP INCREASES
Manila. (By A. FARM BUREAU NOTES

Larger Teams

E. T. Robbins, livestock extension specialist at the College of Agriculture, says that business conditions this year encourage farmers to make more use of horses and less use of tractors except where the scarcity of labor forces the operation of tractors even at the extra cost.

Farther west much larger teams are used. I have a letter from M. L. Wilson of Montana, which states, "I am quite positive that with present farming costs, prices of horses, etc., there is no comparison between tractors and large teams in Montana dry land sections, and until conditions materially change, large teams will practically eliminate tractors. Last week, I visited a farmer across the line in Alberta, who, together with an 18-year-old son, is driving two 12-horse teams and putting in 850 acres of spring wheat and summer fallowing 750 acres of land for next year's crop."

If you think it advisable to put on a demonstration in your county after harvest with hitches for five, six or eight horse teams or even larger numbers, we would be glad to help arrange for it. Before undertaking this it would be well for you to talk it over with some of the more enterprising and practical farmers you have to be sure that there is enough local interest to make it worth while. Let me hear what you think about it. We can furnish you some help for a demonstration.

Farm Accounting

J. D. Bilsborrow, assistant state leader of farm advisers, assisted in getting groups of boys interested in farm accounting last spring. These boys were students in the high schools at Jacksonville, Chapin, Murrayville, Franklin and Waverly. Mr. Bilsborrow promises a visit again soon to meet the students enrolled. The project will terminate January 1, 1924.

State Picnic Scores Success

"Farmers must produce what the consumer demands," was the message of Sidney Anderson, Congressman from Minnesota and chairman of the Joint Commission of Agricultural Inquiry, to the farmers of Illinois at the fifth annual I. A. A. picnic at Urbana last Friday.

Mr. Anderson looks for better conditions in the marketing of agricultural products, first, because there is no more cheap agricultural land, and second, because of the shifting of the farm population to the cities. He pointed out that co-operative marketing would never succeed just because it was labelled co-operative, but that farm products must be standardized, uniform quality must be produced, and the entire marketing service from producer to consumer must be rendered better than at present. The middleman will always be with us and to secure the best returns from their efforts farmers must grow the varieties of wheat that will produce the kind of flour that the miller and the consumer call for and raise the type of hogs that will yield the quality of bacon the packer and consumer demand.

Farm Bureau Meeting July 20th
Earl Smith of Detroit, Ill., executive committeeman from the 20th congressional district, has arranged for a meeting of the executive committee of the farm bureaus at Jacksonville at 10 a. m. Friday, July 20th.

Farm Bureau Day at Chautauqua
The management has designated Saturday, August 25th as Farm Bureau Day. O. E. Bradfute, president of the A. P. B. F. will make the agricultural address. It took all the efforts of Mayor Crabtree, C. S. Black and Earl Smith of the I. A. A. to get him for this occasion.

Attention is called to Herman's July Clearance Sale adv. on page 16.

GERMAN POLICE LIFT BAN ON OPEN AIR GATHERINGS

Berlin. (A. P.)—Once more, after a ban of nearly six months, hold open air demonstrations in Berlin without special permission. The chief of police issued an order early this month lifting the prohibition he instituted late last November. It was then decided to forbid out-door meetings and processions because plundering of shops was regarded as a likely result of the hard times facing the populace during the winter.

A few open-air meetings have since been specially authorized, such as a demonstration against the occupation of the Ruhr district and the labor assemblies staged in celebration of May Day.

HAITI TO EXPORT PINEAPPLES

Port-Au-Prince. (By A. P.)—A concession for the canning and export of pineapples has been awarded by the Haitian Council of State to an American company. While Haiti raises large quantities of pineapples, none has been exported in the history of the island.

Paige Will Pass Your Car on Hills

Let Us Prove Performance—Startling Value, Too

On hills or on levels, the big Paige 70 H.P. motor waits only a light touch on accelerator to flash silently and smoothly ahead—from 2 to 70 miles an hour in high. Small need for gear shifting—though a slight, easy movement does it without clash or missing. And the gentle Paige clutch forbids jerking or stalling.

Paige high-pressure oiling preserves the silence and smoothness of this eager performance for the long life of the car. Exact construction—thousands of chassis dimensions are held to a thousandth of an inch or less—makes far distant the day when its joyous service will lapse.

Paige bodies match mechanical perfection. No squeaks or rattles to annoy—double strips of patent leather keep metal from touching metal or wood. Deeply cushioned seats and ample foot-room, invite rest. The wheelbase of 131 inches, and rear springs more than 5 feet long, with snubbers front and rear, give perfect riding comfort on any road.

Startling value! In addition to this fine car excellence—Paige is completely equipped with all the accessories to comfort and safety for which you usually pay additional. A list is shown below. This concrete value can be given only because the tremendous volume on the Paige-built Jewett has reduced overhead hundreds of dollars per Paige car.

Telephone or call for a demonstration—proof positive. Check Paige performance, life, value—against your requirements in a fine car. If desired, convenient payment terms may be arranged.

BLACK RUST CONDITIONS HAVE BULLISH EFFECT

CHICAGO, July 7.—Conditions likely to develop blackrust had a bullish influence on the wheat market today and so too did gossip that farmers were selling more slowly than usual at this time. Prices closed unsettled a shade to ¼¢ higher with September 1.03½ to 1.03½ and December 1.06½ to 1.06½; corn finished ½ to ¾¢ up, oats showed ¼ to ½¢ up and provisions were unchanged to ½¢ off. Notwithstanding that a forecast of cooler temperatures in the northwest tended somewhat to check anxiety about blackrust, the danger that the pest might suddenly become virulent on a large scale kept sellers at a disadvantage thruout the day. According to reports from some observers, the menace has increased to a material extent in the last week, and could soon be brought to an acute stage. In addition the spring crop was said to be still handicapped by early drought damage and the government estimates on Monday were expected to show a somewhat smaller yield in prospect than in 1922.

The fact that hedging sales of new wheat today were again emphasized talk which was current that farmers considered they had little to lose by refraining as much as practicable from letting go of wheat until after the customary harvest glut in the market.

Corn and Oats were stronger in sympathy with wheat. Scantiness of offerings, July delivery in part was likewise a noticeable factor as to corn and to oats as well.

Provisions responded slightly to weakness of hog values.

PRODUCE MARKET REVIEW

Cooler weather and general rains have helped pasture conditions considerable, and while cream receipts usually decrease at this time of the year, they are holding up well.

The present market is influenced a good deal by expected imports of foreign butter, but on the present basis, consuming demand is increasing, and it would seem that the markets from now on should possibly show an improvement, being influenced by production.

Live hens are moving in larger quantities than a year ago, indicating that the laying season is pretty well over.

The markets on dressed fowl are influenced considerably by the heavy stocks of frozen poultry in storage and it is probable that present conditions will exist for the next several weeks.

Live broilers are not moving as freely as a few weeks ago, indicating that some of the early hatch were lost, due to excessive rains during the early season.

Prospects for a large, late hatch, which naturally will influence the later markets.

Eggs are still going into storage in larger quantities than a year ago, at about the same values. Receipts in the past few days have shown a material dropping off, and consuming demand has improved, so that the market from now on may be some better.

CELEBRATION AT WHITE HALL GREAT SUCCESS

No Less Than 3,000 People Fed at Free Barbecue Which Was Fourth of July Feature—Historical Addresses Heard

White Hall, July 6.—White Hall is now taking stock of the greatest Fourth of July celebration ever attempted here, and opinion is unanimous that it was a success in every particular, the line of entertainment even exceeding expectations. Opinions necessarily vary as to the number of people gathered on Gregory park on account of there being no method of checking, as was the case at the first Bryan when there were 5,000 people present. The gathering this week is the largest ever gathered on Gregory park at any kind of an event. Everybody was served at the free barbecue dinner. One thousand plates were provided, and Dean Corsa, who had charge said these lasted only a comparatively few minutes, some of them being used several times, and that the meat and bread were handed out from noon until 3 o'clock to all comers.

Had Assistance of Many
There were 350 loaves of bread consumed, 12 slices to the loaf, and with the exhaustion of the bread supply a great quantity of barbecued meat was handed out. This means that no less than 3,000 people were fed. There was such a jam at the gates with the efforts to take care of the vast lines of automobiles coming from all directions that great numbers of people made no effort to reach the barbecue stand. Every worker on committees was zealous in performing their best, and in this connection should be mentioned the head of the organization of Good Fellows, Rev. L. E. Ellison, who for a week before the event was busy night and day because of a week of services at his church and a dedication ceremony last Sunday that was in itself an epoch in local religious history. W. P. Lindsey proved a veritable dynamo of energy, and the marvel in energy without the least waste, he making every move count, and he stayed at it for a month not only in his particular line of concession duty, but did everything possible in every way to bring a measure of success, even to the direction of the booster trips that brought vast numbers of people from all the sections visited. White Hall long ago placed a high value on Price Lindsey, but in this effort he proved bigger and better than any estimate before placed upon him.

C. F. Wenken had charge of the fireworks display, and he had the assistance of a group of American Legion boys in putting on a display that was such a spectacular affair that the concluding chapter of a day full of meaning and entertainment impressed the great assembled thousands in a way that will be to the credit of White Hall enterprise and ingenuity for years to come. His assistants included, besides Capt. Dean Corsa, Carl Dossel, Harry Lyons, Frank Carman and others. The only injuries incident to the great celebration were fire burns by nearly all the youngsters. Lyons had his hat blown off in the discharge of a huge bomb.

Two Addresses Heard
Historical importance attaches to the two addresses of the day by Judge Norman I. Jones in his introductory remarks as chairman and Supreme Justice Floyd E. Thompson, who emphasized the source of the event in rededicating the lives of the present generation to the principles of the founders of the nation in the ceremony of dedicating the graves of the 12 government markers erected over the graves of Revolutionary veterans in Green county. There have been numerous calls for copies of these addresses, and it has been decided to employ them in the preparation of a little volume later in giving permanent record of the event. The opinion has been voiced by the most competent critics that two more important patriotic addresses have never before been heard in Greene county. A number of communications from various parts of the nation were read by Rev. L. E. Ellison in emphasizing the wide importance of the occasion. Communications are still coming in, one coming today from Hon. M. D. Purdy, former assistant to the attorney general of the United States, who has been down in the Philippines on an errand for the department of justice, and in his remarks to H. S. Avery he encloses a picture from the Washington Post, taken on the front steps of the capitol at Washington with a group that included Secretary Hughes, he says it serves to show the company he keeps, and wishing he could get back to engage in an old-time chat.

It is simply impossible to give a full account in this necessarily brief report of what proved to be an event that will continue to shed an influence for the higher patriotism and devotion to country so appropriate at this time. Each Revolutionary grave in the county was decorated in connection with the dedication. These included James Garrison, Patterson; Robert Lorton, White Hall; John Thompson, Barrow; Francis Miller, Greenfield; John Huit, Carrollton; Allen J. Bridges, Kane; William Thaxton, Adonijah Griswold, David Hicks, Caleb Post, Aaron Smith, Michael Baker, White Hall soldiers' monument.

Mayor H. W. Roodhouse advocated a maximum arrangement for the observance, and it was thru him that the city council started the ball rolling with an appropriation of $300.00. Citizens subscribed $800.00, and this did not include $510.00 appropriated by the county board for the specific purpose of printing and distributing a pamphlet of information. This affords an idea of what the affair cost, and the committee feels that it will run short of funds to meet all bills.

Deputy sheriffs were provided by Sheriff Conlee, and the noise about his refusal to do so is bunk. However, the county will not foot the bill.

BUSINESS MAN SINGS PRAISE
"I suffered for years with stomach trouble and gas continually. Doctors thought I had stomach ulcers or cancer. After last attack they advised going to Rochester, Minn., for an operation. SHOULD WATER HORSES OFTEN

A local veterinarian again calls attention to the fact that extreme hot weather is here and the dumb animals suffer from the lack of water the same as human beings if forced to go a full half-day without a drink.

If the horses are given a drink at about 10 o'clock in the morning and again at 4 o'clock in the afternoon the horses will show much more energy and stand the weather better than if this practice is started the majority of people will gladly keep it up.

WHAT THE WORLD IS DOING

AS SEEN BY POPULAR MECHANICS MAGAZINE

X-Raying Heart Action of School Children

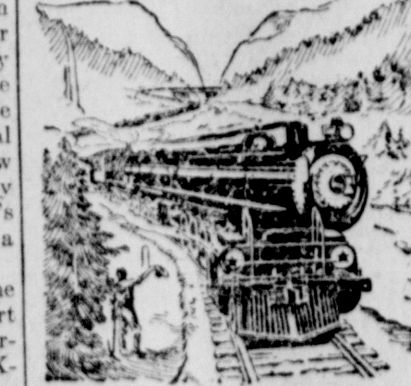

Impressed by the fact that 50 to 70 per cent of school children are to some extent physically defective—a portion having curvature of the spine or other less obvious deformities, while fully two per cent suffer from diseases of the heart—physicians of Minneapolis have introduced a new system of physical examination. Chief among the new devices for this purpose is an X-ray camera for taking pictures of a child's heart while he is engaged in pedaling a stationary bicycle.

By means of a metal framework the body of the child is made to support the picture-taking apparatus, so arranged that the box containing the X-ray tube hangs on his back, whereas the film holder is suspended in front of the heart region. The child is then directed to "ride" the bicycle as fast and hard as he can, and the picture of the heart is taken while he is in action. Changes in size and shape, which help to tell the story of health or disease, are thus easily recorded. The bicycle is also used to measure the child's

A little time spent in making the hedge-clipping gauge shown in the drawing will go far to improve the appearance of hedge fences by making it possible to clip the hedge uniformly.

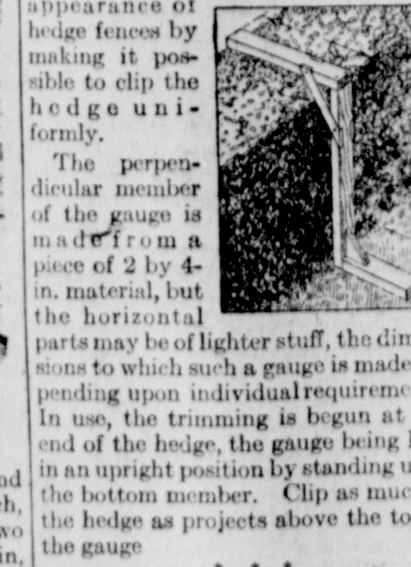

Monster Locomotive Pivots on Front Truck

"Double headers," "helpers" and "pushers"—the first named of which, in a railroad's language, means two locomotives at the front end of a train, and the last two designating the locomotives coupled on the rear end, to move trains up steep grades—probably will become only memories, if monster locomotives like the one illustrated are to be generally used.

When this big Mallet-type locomotive takes a curve in the track, it cannot make the turn as its smaller brothers do, as it is 138 feet long—one of the largest ever built. Its boilers swing on pivots independently of the wheels. It has 12 driving wheels, weighs 850,000 pounds—425 tons—and carries 12,000 gallons of water and 4,000 gallons of oil. Its use has largely been confined to freight hauling on a western road, and it easily handles a hundred cars through the Rocky Mountains.

Keeping Out the Rain

The drawing shows a good method of keeping rain out of the open window of a sleeping room, where it is essential to have fresh air at all times, even during rainy weather.

A wooden box is made to fit between the window jambs and rest on the sill. It is held in place by means of thumb screws on the sides, and also by the weight of the window on top. The opening is made on the underside of the box, so that rain cannot enter.
